

CREATIVE AGING SERIES:

Storytelling with Watercolors

Join us at WMCAT for meaningful, creative art making through watercolors. Over four class sessions, you will learn art skills while sharing stories and developing community within the group. This class is for those age 55 or better, of ALL skill levels, and with a story to tell.

ABOUT THE INSTRUCTOR

Leara Glinzak has been working with older adults for more than eight years through the arts. As a registered art therapist and dementia specialist, Leara tailors programs to utilize the arts in a format that is inviting, empowering and creates community with older adults.
